

November 2011

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
Tere Bowen-Irish www.allthepossibilitiesinc.com		1 Make some pudding with a grown up!	2 Pretend you are conductor...put on some music and take out your wand!	3 Invite a friend over to play...if it is nice day... plan some outside fun!	4 Count how many fruits and veggies you ate today!	5 Draw your dream house!
6 Make up a dance, twirl, tap, shake, twist...	7 Help sort socks from the laundry, match them, roll them and deliver!	8 Take out an Eric Carle book from the library. Make your own ripped art project!	9 Bat a balloon around with one hand, then the other, then both hands.	10 Make a pretend meal out of play dough... serve it to someone in your family.	11 Veterans' Day Talk to a grown up that was a Veteran.	12 Look at globe and find the United States, Africa, Italy, or China. Where else?
13 Play kick ball.	14 Walk like giant, slither like a snake, hop like a rabbit.	15 Help with a chore around the house. Dusting? Sweeping?	16 Make up a story about sneaking a dinosaur into your house!	17 Water some plants in your house.	18 Ask a grown up what black Friday means.	19 Paint a picture of the pilgrims and native Americans.
20 Make a Thanksgiving card for a relative.	21 Make place setting names for thanksgiving, draw a turkey.	22 Count how many knives, forks and spoons you have in your house.	23 Read a book, then draw your favorite character.	24 Thanksgiving Day Help set the table.	25 Can you do 10 donkey kicks? 15?	26 Play a card game with a grown up.
27 Sleep in, wake up and eat a pancake breakfast! You beat the batter.	28 Sort through toys you don't use any more, donate them.	29 Learn to count to ten in a new language!	30 Teach a friend to tie their shoe, or ask a friend to teach you.

Get these printable calendars for any dates you need with CalendarsThatWork.com Full Access.